

Port of

Saint-Pierre et Miquelon

Discover des îles d'exception – the exceptional islands – of Saint-Pierre et Miquelon, located less than 20 kilometres (12 miles) south of the island of Newfoundland. This beautiful archipelago offers an authentic and unique experience of seaside France – from right here on the edge of North America. Don't let the small size fool you, there's an abundance of history and culture here to uncover.

Fun For Everyone

- Be romanced by the lush landscapes and the rich Basques, Brittany, Normandy, and Acadian cultures that call these islands home.
- Explore the local shops and bakeries on downtown Saint-Pierre.
- With plenty of guided tour options available both on foot and by bus, history is constantly at your fingertips waiting to be discovered.
- Absorb sweeping nature views – there are plenty of rolling greens and sandy beaches, nature trails and nesting grounds.
- Board a Zodiac with a guide and get up close and personal with the seals, puffins, and birds (both resident and migratory) that call Saint-Pierre et Miquelon home.

Port Specifications

- Berthage: 150 m (492 ft)
- Depth: 10.5 m (35 ft)
- Deck Elevation: 5 m (16.4 ft)

Harbour Master :

enrique.perez@equipement-agriculture.gouv.fr
(+508) 41 09 74 / (+508) 55 13 21

Available Services

- Airport
- Complete harbour facilities
- The Euro is the official currency, Canadian dollars and major credit cards accepted downtown
- Free WiFi
- Hospital
- Simplified customs procedures
- Trilingual service (French, English, Spanish)

Contact Information

Vanina Merkle - Advertising and Promotion Agent
Phone : (+508) 41 01 34
Email : vanina.merkle@ct975.fr

Chloé Walsh - Cruise Operations Assistant
Phone : (+508) 41 02 00
Email : chloe.walsh@ct975.fr
Website : www.spm-tourisme.fr

Béatrice Lescoublet - Visitor Information Centre Manager
Phone : (+508) 41 02 00
Email : beatrice.lescoublet@ct975.fr
Website : www.spm-tourisme.fr