

Port of Saint-Pierre et Miquelon

Discover des îles d'exception – the exceptional islands – of Saint-Pierre et Miquelon, located less than 20 kilometres (12 miles) south of the island of Newfoundland. This beautiful archipelago offers an authentic and unique experience of seaside France – from right here on the edge of North America. Don't let the small size fool you, there's an abundance of history and culture here to uncover.

Fun For Everyone

- Be romanced by the lush landscapes and the rich Basques, Brittany, Normandy, and Acadian cultures that call these islands home.
- Explore the local shops and bakeries on downtown Saint-Pierre.
- With plenty of guided tour options available both on foot and by bus, history is constantly at your fingertips waiting to be discovered.
- Absorb sweeping nature views – there are plenty of rolling greens and sandy beaches, nature trails and nesting grounds.
- Board a Zodiac with a guide and get up close and personal with the seals, puffins, and birds (both resident and migratory) that call Saint-Pierre et Miquelon home.

Port Specifications

Saint Pierre

Length: 54 m (177 ft)

Depth: 10.4 m (34 ft)

Deck Elevation: 5 m (16.4 ft)

Docking length between two dolphins:

150 m (492 ft). Maximum vessel: 300 m (984 ft).

Shipping Agent :

jcfouchard@cheznoo.net

Harbour Master :

capitainerie.pole-maritime.dtam-975@equipement-agriculture.gouv.fr
(+508) 41 09 74 / (+508) 55 13 21

Available Services

- Airport
- Complete harbour facilities
- The Euro is the official currency and major credit cards are accepted downtown
- Free WiFi
- Hospital
- Simplified customs procedures
- Trilingual service (French, English, Spanish)

Contact Information

Chloé Walsh - Cruise Operations Assistant

Phone : (+508) 41 02 00

Email : chloe.walsh@ct975.fr

Website : www.spm-tourisme.fr

Béatrice Lescoublet -

Visitor Information Center Manager and Cruise Operations

Phone : (+508) 41 02 00

Email : beatrice.lescoublet@ct975.fr

Website : www.spm-tourisme.fr